YOUNG MEN'S DAY IS SET APART

Democratic Chairman Eller Names Oct. 29.

His Action In Response to Wide Interest Evoked by Gov. Jarvis' Letter Directing the Thoughts of Young Men To Their Duties as Citizens—Young Men All Over State Will Have Their Attention Called To Young Men's Day.

Raleigh, Oct. 22.—State Democratic Chairman Eller appoints October 29, as Young Men's Day in North Carolina. This is in response to the wide interest evoked by Governor Jarvis' letter of last Sunday directing the thoughts of young men to their duties as citizens, and asking them to take a lively interest in all public questions and to become active, working Democrats.

Letters have come in from all about the State from young men expressing their appreciation of the ideas set forth, and pledging themselves to work for the party of sound government and clean administration.

On Young Men's Day the speakers throughout the State will devote special attention to the young men and the Democratic press will give the idea hearty support, and call attention to the work that young men can and are doing.

Leaders have been selected in each county, who will, in turn, appoint township and precinct leaders to put high class literature in the hands of young men and to secure their interest and active support up till the election.

It is the desire that every young white man who is of voting age, not only register and be prepared to cast an intelligent vote, but that he shall be also a student of public questions and a working Democrat.

The widespread interest in the movement indicates that it will be one of the most popular and really useful agencies of many campaigns. But its influence is not to stop. On the contrary, it is designed to be of permanent effect in securing more attention to the intelligent and earnest study of public questions. At many points in the State large Democratic clubs have been organized among the young men.

IN HONOR OF MISS McDONALD

Elegant Morning Party Given For Bride-To-Be by Mrs. J. C. Watkins.

One of the most delightful, most daintily designed social events that Greensboro has known was the elegant morning party given by Mrs. J. C. Watkins at her home on West Market street Friday morning, in honor of Miss Queenie McDonald whose marriage to Mr. D. E. Maxwell takes place at the home of the bride's parents next Wednesday evening.

The ladies who will assist in receiving at the wedding were the guests. The decorations were elaborate throughout.

Miss McDonald was attired in brown satin with Persian and chiffon trimmings and wore an exquisite hat of velvet, lace and willow plumes.

After a little time spent in playing "Hearts" the hostess served a delicious course of salads, hot rolls, olives, ices in the shape of hearts, yellow cake, mince, coffee and sandwiches.

Then the west parlor was thrown open disclosing a lovely scene: A large party was suspended over the table on which was a "ghost book" in which every guest wrote her name, the last one being the honoree who was "show-ered" by the falling of ribbons and packages in which was a dainty handkerchief from each guest.

The event was a most happy one throughout. Those enjoying Mrs. Watkins' hospitality were: Miss Queenie McDonald, Miss Bessie Grissom, Miss Alma McDonald, Miss Nan Wood, Mesdames J. C. Murchison, of Charleston, S. C.; W. E. Allen, J. P. Turner, S. L. Alderman, J. Elmer Leak, E. R. Michaux, C. M. Vansly, W. E. Blair, A. B. High, J. J. Stone, E. D. Broadhurst, Mrs. S. H. Tomlinson, of High Point.

Men will nurse delusions just as long as women will coddle pet dogs.

THE MARRIAGE OF MR. J. C. CHERRY

Account of An Interesting Wedding Event In Which a Greensboro Man Was the Bridegroom

The following from this week's Enfield Progress telling of the marriage of Mr. James C. Cherry of this city and Miss Mary Long Whitehead of Enfield will be read with interest by many:

"The Presbyterian church was handsomely decorated Tuesday afternoon with potted plants and ferns, and the aisles and the entrance to the church were carpeted with white muslin in honor of the wedding which took place at 1:30 o'clock. The contracting parties were Miss Mary Long Whitehead, of this place, and Mr. James C. Cherry, of Greensboro, both of them from very prominent families of this section of the State. The ceremony was impressively performed by Dr. W. D. Morton, of Rocky Mount.

"When Mrs. J. Fred Stevens, of Spring Hope, at the organ and Mr. Frank Whitaker on the violin commenced the wedding march the house was nearly filled with friends of the couple from far and near, and when the bride and groom came down the aisles, preceded by attendants, the scene was one of great beauty.

"The bride was dressed in white satin with pearl trimming, and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses. The groom wore a Prince Albert coat, grey trousers and silk hat.

"The bridal party entered in the following order: Ushers, Messrs. C. C. Lucas and B. E. Bobbitt down the right aisle, and P. E. Whitehead and Fred Jurgens down the left; groomsmen, Messrs. W. J. Mayo and Thee Thomas, entered by single file down either aisle, and wore black suits, grey ties and gloves; bridesmaids, Misses Lily Savage and Inez Thomas entered by left aisle, and Mary Sherrod and Fannie Whitely by the right and wore white batiste dresses and carried white and pink carnations with autumn leaves, they wore short white veils; then followed the two maids of honor, Misses Lillian Whitehead, sister of the bride, gownned in pink messaline with pale blue trimming carrying white carnations, Ruby Whitaker gownned in white crepe de chene and carrying white carnations, both wore short white veils; next followed the matron of honor, Mrs. B. E. Bobbitt, sister of the bride, gownned in grey messaline with white Persian trimming carrying a large ring of pink roses; next came two little girls, Miss Frances Cherry carrying a basket of flowers with little Miss Elizabeth McGowan bearing the ring upon a silver waiter; then came the bride leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. W. T. Whitehead, down the right aisle where they were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Joe Taylor.

"At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party and invited guests went to the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Bobbitt where a delightful luncheon was served. Misses Mary Collins and Grace Wootton presided at the punch bowl. The whole lower floor was turned into one and it was beautifully lighted with candles and electric lights.

"Mr. B. E. Bobbitt, brother-in-law of the bride on Monday prior to the marriage, gave the bridal party a barbecue and Brunswick stew dinner which was greatly enjoyed by all.

"The presents received by the newly married couple were numerous and handsome as well as valuable.

"Mr. and Mrs. Cherry left on the afternoon train for New York and other points where they will spend several weeks. They will be at home to their friends after November tenth at Greensboro.

"Among the out of town guests were: Mrs. M. J. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Cherry and daughter, Dr. C. A. Whitehead, Thee Thomas and sister, Miss Inez, of Tarboro; Mr. W. J. Mayo, of Conetoe; Miss Frances Whitely, of Washington; Mr. C. D. Mayo, of Greensboro; Mr. W. R. Cherry and son, Frank, and Mr. W. R. Harrell, Miss Lila Whitehead and brother, Mr. Julius, of Scotland Neck; Miss Lily Savage, of Speeds; Mr. John Mayo, of Bethel; Mr. C. S. Cherry and little daughter, Frances, of Mt. Olive; Mrs. Zeno Moore, of Whitakers; Mrs. J. J. Spivey, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Stevens, of Spring Hope; Mr. Fred Jurgens, of Richmond, Va.; Messrs. Joe Taylor, Will Sherrod and Dr. Coble, of Greensboro; Dr. Hess, of Washington, D. C.; Dr. W. D. Morton, Rocky Mount."

WERE NO MATCH FOR GREENSBORO

Danville Team Out-pointed by Locals.

Our "Highs" Defeat Football Team From Danville by the One-Sided Score of 40 to 0—Nevertheless, the Visitors Performed Some of the Best Individual Plays Seen Here in Many a Day.

Yesterday afternoon marked the second appearance of the Greensboro High School on the home gridiron and, incidentally the defeat of the team representing the Danville Boys' School at their hands. The score was large and the game one-sided—Greensboro 40, Danville 0. Danville was outpointed in all departments of the game—weight, team work, and generalship. But, be it said to the credit of the visitors, they performed some of the best individual plays seen here in many a day. Their left end, though small and light, played a game that ranked high above that of his teammates. The visiting right half-back, Taylor, and full back, Capt. Cooke, played excellent games. For Greensboro Foust, Grimsley and Murray played excellent games and much of the credit of the seven touch downs can be laid at their door. Coffin's punting and goal kicking was also of high order. But Greensboro's entire line worked exceedingly well. Time after time the seven line men held Danville's heavy backs without a gain and they did much damage in blocking plays and frustrating the plans of their opponents. The line-ups of the two teams follow with the detailed game:

Greensboro.	Position.	Danville
Foust	Capps
Fisher	Hanner
Bond	Nance
Dixon	Hopkins
Lindau	Davis
Marrs	Holcomb
Harry	Pendleton
McDuffie	Taylor
Yates	Boatwright
Grimsley	Cooke (Capt.)
Coffin (Capt.)	Fox

Substitutes—Wolfe, Taylor, McDuffie, Murray, Preddy, and Marrs for Greensboro; Gray, Parham for Danville.

The Officials.

Mr. Arthur Coffin was the referee; Mr. Groome, umpire; head linesman, Mr. Muir, and Messrs. Ellison and King were timekeepers. The quarters were 10 minutes each.

The First Quarter.

Greensboro received the kick-off in the north goal. Marrs received the ball and was downed on the 35 yard line. After gaining first down once Greensboro was forced to punt, and McDuffie captured the ball on Danville's forty yard line. Two plays sent Yates the required ten yards. Here Greensboro fumbled and Taylor, of Danville, fell on the ball. Danville punted, Coffin received the ball, and running twenty-five yards was downed within three feet of the goal. On the next play Grimsley carried the ball over and Coffin kicked goal. Greensboro kicking, Taylor received the ball and was downed on the fifteen yard line by Foust. Danville attempted a forward pass but Grimsley caught the ball. The ball changed hands and then again, Grimsley ran fifteen yards for the second touchdown. Coffin kicked goal and time was out. Score for the quarter, Greensboro 12, Danville 0.

The Second Quarter.

Danville kicked to Harry who ran five yards. After a couple of plays Greensboro lost the ball on downs. Danville then worked her only successful forward pass for a good gain. On the next attempt Marrs caught the pass. Greensboro punted and it was Danville's ball about the center of the field. Danville attempted a forward pass but it was not received and, after being penalized, punted. Coffin, receiving, ran ten yards. Yates ran ten, and Grimsley made another first down. From the fifteen yard line Coffin ran for the third touchdown. Goal was missed. Score Greensboro 17, Danville 0.

The Third Quarter.

With a changed line-up Greensboro kicked toward the north goal and Cooke advanced the ball thirty yards. Danville was forced to punt, and Grimsley, receiving, was downed in his tracks by Pendleton. Danville took the ball on downs but Grimsley captured another forward pass. Coffin attempted a drop kick for goal but Cooke broke up the kick, and Coffin recaptured the ball. On a forward pass Grimsley gained twelve yards and Grimsley, in a fifteen yard line, carried the ball to the two yard line. Yates scored the touchdown, but goal was missed. Score Greensboro 22, Danville 0.

The Fourth Quarter.

The last round opened with the ball in Greensboro's possession on her forty yard line. Marrs gained forty yards on an end run. By a well executed forward pass Murray gained thirty yards. Grimsley and Coffin each made first down and Marrs was sent over for the fifth touchdown, and Coffin kicked goal. Greensboro kicked to the south goal but received a punt on Danville's forty yard line. A twelve yard gain on a forward pass by Murray, ten yards by Yates, and the next play sent Yates over for the sixth touchdown. Coffin kicked goal. Pendleton received the ball for Danville in the south goal. On her first play Danville fumbled and was downed on her two yard line by Foust. Danville attempted to punt but Foust blocked the kick and captured the ball for a touchdown.

Coffin kicked goal, the fifth from seven difficult chances, and the last point was scored when the game ended in about two minutes the ball was Greensboro's on Danville's forty five yard line. A review of the game will show that almost the entire time the ball was in Danville's territory. Both teams were heavily penalized, each being set back about sixty yards for illegal plays.

MUCH SPEAKING IN PROSPECT

Some of The Best Campaigners Coming.

Tuesday Night of This Week Whitehead Klutz Will Be Here and His Speech Will Be a Treat—Young Voters and Ladies Especially Invited To Hear Him—Later, There Will Be Speeches by Ex-Gov. Glenn and Others.

On next Tuesday, (25th) at eight o'clock p. m. Hon. Whitehead Klutz, of Salisbury, one of the best campaigners among the younger Democrats in the State will speak in the court house in Greensboro. His speech in Durham a few weeks ago was one of the features of the campaign. The young voters and the ladies are especially invited to hear him. He is attractive and brilliant. After the speaking a Democratic club will be formed to aid the cause in the City of Greensboro and elsewhere.

On Tuesday, November 1, at 8 o'clock p. m., the people of Guilford county will have the privilege of hearing ex-Gov. R. B. Glenn, one of the strongest speakers in the State. His speech this year is full of humor, and logic and does not fail to engage the attention of the people who hear him.

On Friday, Nov. 3, at 8 o'clock, p. m., Gov. W. W. Kitchen will address the voters of the county in the court house at Greensboro. Governor Kitchen always makes a strong speech. He is at his best in this campaign.

On Friday, November 4, at 8 o'clock p. m., Hon. Lee S. Overman, United States Senator, will speak at Proximity. It is hoped that the people of the community and county so far as possible will hear this splendid orator and debater.

Major Stedman will end the campaign in Greensboro. He will speak on November 7th at eight o'clock p. m.—the night before the election, in the court house.

The voters of the county are invited to attend all of these speakings and hear the issues of the campaign discussed.

Socialist Rally Again Postponed.

The Socialists have had again to postpone their rally. They had planned to have it Tuesday night but found that the Democrats had arranged to use the court house that night. So they have deferred their speaking until Thursday night. They expect to have some visiting Socialists here to help them expound the doctrines of Socialism.

At West Market Street Methodist Church.

There will be no preaching today at West Market Street Methodist church, but at 11 o'clock, Miss Lillian M. Phelps, national W. C. T. U. lecturer, will speak. The public is invited to hear her.

ward pass Greensboro gained twelve yards and Grimsley, in a fifteen yard line, carried the ball to the two yard line. Yates scored the touchdown, but goal was missed. Score Greensboro 22, Danville 0.

The Fourth Quarter.

The last round opened with the ball in Greensboro's possession on her forty yard line. Marrs gained forty yards on an end run. By a well executed forward pass Murray gained thirty yards. Y. W. C. A. DAY IN GREENSBORO

Three Union Meetings Under Auspices of the Organization—Miss Casler, Secretary For the Carolinas and Virginia Will Speak At All Three.

Miss Anna D. Casler, of Charlotte, arrived in the city last night and will spend a few days as the guest of Mrs. E. P. Wharton. Miss Casler is the executive secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association for the Carolinas and Virginia, and is to speak today at each of the union meetings under the auspices of the local association.

The meeting of the South Greensboro churches will be held at Westminster Presbyterian church at 3 p. m., Rev. C. E. Hodgkin presiding, and there will be special music consisting of a duet by Miss Marguerite Cartland and Mr. Harry Cunningham, and a solo by Miss Florence E. Cain.

At the meeting of the Westside churches at Spring Garden Street Methodist church at 5 p. m. Rev. J. W. Long will preside, and there will be special music by the choir, a solo by Miss Ethel Harris, and a duet by Mrs. Sharpe and Miss Minnie Jamison.

Rev. Melton Clark will preside at the union meeting of the central churches at the West Market Street Methodist church at 8 p. m. and the music will be a chorus by the choir, a quartet by Miss Neff, Miss Hughes, Mr. Clapp and Dr. Wheeler, and a quartet by Mrs. Foushee, Mrs. Albright, Mrs. Stone and Miss Wood.

At each of these meetings a report of the past year's work of the local association will be given and it is hoped through these three union meetings, to bring before practically all the people of Greensboro, the work of this important organization.

Miss Casler is a speaker of unusual ability and all who have at heart the best interests of the young womanhood of our city, and thus of the city itself, will be greatly interested in her address on the "Young Women's Christian Association as a Factor in Civic Life."

ARTS AND HANDICRAFTS GUILD TO RE-OPEN SOON

It Is Maintained For the Use of the People of Greensboro—Proceeds Used For Lectures and Exhibitions Which Are Free To the Public.

The Arts and Handicrafts Guild of Greensboro will reopen the Shop, 207 West Market street, Tuesday afternoon November first, with an unusually interesting exhibition of decorated porcelain, American pottery, brass and copper work, pewter, embroidery, laces, stenciled and block printed fabrics, photographs, etchings, baskets, leather work, etc., as well as cards for Christmas, birthday and other occasions.

The shop is maintained by the Guild for the use of the public of Greensboro whose patronage at all times is cordially invited. The sale of the work of the craftsman not only is a stimulus and an encouragement to the worker, but it affords to the purchaser the rare advantage of obtaining articles of good design and workmanship made by some of the best craftsmen in the country. The proceeds of these sales are used for lectures and exhibitions which are free to the public.

Special exhibitions of baskets, silverware, Indian pottery, bookbinding, bookplates, leather work, and illuminating will be held, and lectures on arts and crafts topics will be given from time to time during the winter.

Local members who have not already entered their work for the season, are requested to send it to the shop on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 29, between three and five thirty o'clock.

City Philathea Union.

The City Philathea Union will hold its regular meeting in the Smith Memorial building next Tuesday evening, Oct. 25th, at eight o'clock, instead of at the First Baptist church as previously announced. All the classes will please note the change in place of meeting. The First Presbyterian class will have charge of the program and a most helpful and enjoyable occasion may be expected under the auspices of this active class. It is hoped that every class in the city will be largely represented.

Very Interesting Program Promised.

The Epworth League of West Market Street M. E. church will meet Monday night at eight o'clock. A very interesting program has been prepared by the missionary department. The subject will be "Daybreak in the Dark Continent." The public is cordially invited Secretary.

RINGLING BROS. REACH THE CITY

Are Spending Sunday in Greensboro.

Arrived Early This Morning On Four Special Trains From Durham—Entire Equipment To Be Here by Eight O'clock—As Little Work Today As Possible—Parade Tomorrow At Ten A. M.

Ringling Brothers' big circus will spend Sunday in Greensboro, coming early this morning from Durham on four special trains. It is probable that the entire equipment will be in town by 8 o'clock. As fast as the trains arrive they will be unloaded and their strange cargoes whisked away to the show grounds. Only those tents that are necessary to the comfort of the people and the animals will be erected today, however, as the Sabbath is a day of rest with circus people just as it is with other folk.

Two performances will be given here on Monday. The afternoon show will begin at 2 o'clock and the night show at 8 o'clock. The doors will open an hour earlier for an inspection of what is confidently claimed by the circus people to be the finest menagerie in America. The chief attraction here is the first real baby-elephant that has been exhibited in this country since 1875.

The parade will take place at 10 o'clock in the forenoon.

William Carr, "twenty-four-hour man" of the circus, and A. L. Webb, the Steward, spent yesterday in the city making purchases and completing final arrangements for the arrival this morning. Everything points to an ideal circus day. In other cities where the Ringlings have appeared this season, the attendance has been the largest in the history of amusements. The splendid reputation of the five showmen, coupled with the fact that they are surpassing all their past records, is attracting wonderful crowds. The main exhibition tent is the largest ever built, yet it has been crowded at every performance.

The new parade is unusually attractive. It is constructed on a plan new to street pageantry. There are three miles of splendor. The vast equipment was devised and built last winter in the foreign workshops of the show at Stoke-on-Trent, England. It is the work of a corps of the best artists, sculptors, designers and property masters of Italy and France. It is a congress of nations, a musical convention, a zoological garden on wheels, a horse fair, a carnival of clowns, a fairland spectacle and a gallery of mythology, all rolled into one long panorama.

Early tomorrow morning a down-town ticket office will be opened in the Greensboro Drug Company's store where reserved seats and admissions for both performances can be bought at the regular prices.

Schubert Recital Given by Euterpe Club.

A Schubert recital was given yesterday afternoon by the Euterpe Club in Miss Phyllis Woodall's studio. It was greatly enjoyed by all present and the program follows:

1. Paper—The German Lied. Mrs. J. J. Stone.
2. Vocal Solo—Hark, Hark! the Lark, Schubert. Mrs. J. R. Black.
3. Piano Solo—"The Rosemonde," Schubert. Mrs. Chas. Van Noppen.
4. Violin Solo—Ave Maria. Schubert. Miss Woodall.
5. Quartet—"The Lord is My Shepherd." Mesdames Foushee, Albright, Stone and Miss Woodall.

Municipal Court.

In Municipal Court yesterday Mrs. Cora Farmington, the woman who was arrested Friday on the charge of stealing some cloth from one of the stores, was given a hearing. Judgment was suspended on payment of costs, the woman having a very young child and her circumstances generally appealing to the pity of the court. She was put under a pledge never to repeat the offence.

MARION BUTLER AND THE BONDS

Gazette News Severely Condemns The Ex-Senator.

Declares That Butler Stabbed His Mother State in the Breast, the Mother That Had Nourished Him and Honored Him With the Highest Office in Her Gift—Had the Offence Been Against the National Government Prison Bars Would Have Awaited Him.

Asheville Gazette-News,

Politically speaking, this paper trusts that its position will be understood by its friends, or those who may do us the honor to peruse this department of the paper with any degree of regularity or interest. We have no brief for the Democratic county ticket, holding that to be no affair of this independent paper. We have friends among the Republican county candidates, to whom it has been our pleasure to show ourselves friendly in the past and, under different auspices, we indulge the hope that we may be permitted to actively manifest this sort of spirit in the future. This paper would be glad, being mindful of the State's best interests, to see a strong Republican party built up in the State, an opposition that would have to be reckoned with under all circumstances, and at all times. But we believe that the Republican President has been unjust to his party in the State to a degree that demands some show of resentment, if the party is to become respectable in its own eyes, in fact as well as in name; and we are opposed to a Republican party that is conducted under the known umbrage of Marion Butler.

It will be of no avail for Republicans to close their eyes, or hold fast their noses. There can be no concealing of the fact of Butler's leadership. It is known of all men. In the campaign now in progress it is always the form of Butler that stands out boldest on the firing line. By the opposition Morehead is naturally regarded as negligible, and if he, by using Duncan's Greensboro newspaper, succeeds in drawing any of the enemy's fire it invariably takes the form of bird shot; the thirteen-inch shells are hurled in the direction of Butler. In the event of a Republican triumph his will be the victory, and it is he who will not hesitate, who will of a right, lay first claim to the spoils, or the crown or, to be specific, the Senatorship. It is he who will direct the movement of a highly mobilized lobby in the event of a Republican legislature. Nor will the party be in position to say him may unless, through a rank exhibition of ingratitude for services rendered, it shows itself unworthy even of Butler's leadership.

Can the Republican party of North Carolina afford to put itself in the position where it will feel compelled, out of consideration of gratitude and decency, to again send this man to the Senate? His manifold treacheries and his numberless deceptions, such as that attempted in respect to the local self-government plank apart, there can be no question of the fact that Butler's leadership inevitably puts the party on the defensive. The act of bringing suit against the state, while he held a commission as Senator, is enough to damn any man, or any set of men. It was an act of high moral treason that will weigh like a millstone about the neck of any party that affects to condone, or forget the crime. Having no ethical standard it is appalling the degree to which Butler's moral perceptions have been dulled, or deadened. That these moral sensibilities are dead beyond recall, is shown by the disingenuousness, or the frothy violence of his reply to his critics. The state had already effected a settlement of these bond cases, and the people were not then in position to have their burdens multiplied in the form of increased taxes. But Butler, taking advantage of his high position, his only provocative the money lust, or a desire for personal aggrandizement, conceived the idea, jointly with Pettigrew of South Dakota, of bringing the suit for the bondholders. These bondholders were only too glad to pay him liberally; they knew there would never be another Butler. The man had stabbed in the breast the mother State that had nurtured him, that had honored him with the highest office within her gift. At that moment his State was his sovereign, and he showed himself faithless to this branch of a public trust.

Had the crime been committed against the Federal government, instead of the State that had honored him so far beyond his deserts, he might instantly have been brought face to face with prison bars. For a lesser, a much less grievous act of treachery, Burton was sent to the penitentiary, and Mitchell of Oregon was only saved from such fate by the interposition of Providence. Death claimed him, the Oregon Senator dying of a broken heart. Butler is now running Republican politics, instead of learning some of the useful crafts at Atlanta or Moundsville, simply because no North Carolinian ever felt that it would be necessary to safeguard the Commonwealth against that peculiar, that unthinkable, form of treachery.

Now what does Butler answer to that act of high treason, that must have fairly attainted the blood? He answers that Josephus Daniels would have waited a few weeks, until his term as Senator expired, and would then have accepted the fee from the bondholders.

Do Republicans with a sense of patriotism and self-respect believe that a party acknowledging such leadership, can achieve a triumph that would, in the last analysis, appear at all desirable?

BATTER POLICE CAPTAIN IN MAD BARGAIN RUSH.

Women Elbow Becker and Tramp on His Feet Till He is Forced to Call Reserves.

New York World.

Capt. John Becker, of the Hamburg avenue (Brooklyn) police station, says his job is the toughest he has ever had. He stretched himself cautiously on his couch last night, after carefully arranging the down cushions, and declared there was not a spot about him that would not be sore for weeks.

The captain was sent for yesterday morning to quell a riot of bargain-mad women at the opening of a new "Lovely Things at One Cent and Nothing Over a Quarter" store on Broadway, near Flushing avenue, Brooklyn. Long before the store opened at 8:30 a. m. the women lined up outside, counted their cents, sharpened their elbows and listened for the drawing of the bolts. As the doors moved, the women formed a flying wedge. The clerk, whose duty it had been to turn the key, was found afterwards at the back end of the store, and with difficulty was revived.

In a twinkling the store was crowded. Salesgirls were jammed to their sales counters, and in one or two instances were buried beneath their pile of "Lovely Things" when the counters overturned in the wild rush. Women were so closely packed together, they could get neither at their bargains nor their cents, and did nothing but scream.

For an hour there was pandemonium. At last a strong clerk forced his way to the telephone and called the police. He was given a week's vacation afterward, on full pay.

Capt. Becker thought at first he could do it with polite diplomacy. But after what he estimates at least 10,000 elbows had been dug into his waistline, and twice as many feet had trodden on his, he sent for the reserves to come and rescue him. He will draw up a memorial today recommending the creation of a special department to deal with such desperate situations and suggest medals for the victims who survive, with medical and funeral expenses for the others.

Passenger—Any danger on this trip, cap?

Captain—Well, there's a pirate balloon above us and a submarine under us and we're carrying twenty tons of dynamite. Outside of that there's no cause for nervousness.

COX TO DESERT CINCINNATI

"Boss" Going to New York and Leave Ohio City to Its Fate.
Cincinnati, Oct. 22.—George B. Cox, who has been for 20 years the boss of Cincinnati, will leave this city within the next few months and take up his abode in New York city. The matter leaked out, and is now the sole topic of political conversation hereabouts.
Mr. Cox recently sold a large amount of his property in Cincinnati and plans to sell the rest of it and go to New York to take charge of his theatrical interests, in which he has placed several millions, and which have grown so big that they need his attention there.
He recognizes, from his long political experience in Cincinnati, that he must be here all the time if he continues in power in this city. However, this is impossible.

It is understood that Mr. Cox placed all his stockholdings in corporations outside the Cincinnati Trust Company for sale, and that they have been partly sold. Mr. Cox himself denies that he is planning to go away, but from other sources it is learned that he did not intend the announcement to come at this time, because his stocks have not all been disposed of.

By their works ye shall know them—Watchmakers.

RECITAL FOR THE CORNELIANS

Enjoyable Event Under Auspices of One of the Literary Societies of the State Normal College—Various Numbers Enthusiastically Encored.

Under the auspices of the Cornelian Literary Society of the State Normal College last night, there was given a most enjoyable recital at the college last night by Prof. George McKie, professor of public speaking at the State University, and by Prof. George Sneath, recently appointed instructor in English at that institution.

Quite a large number of people from the city joined the college students in giving the two visitors from Chapel Hill a large and appreciative audience.

The program was given as printed in yesterday morning's paper. Prof. Sneath, the soloist, showed himself to be a singer of extraordinary merit. He has a beautiful baritone voice. Every number that he rendered was followed by an enthusiastic encore.

Prof. McKie was equally as satisfactory to the audience, being also encored at the conclusion of each of his numbers.

CHARGED WITH STEALING GRIP

Owner Said It Contained Seventy Dollars In Money As Well As Clothes and Tools.

Julius Weaver, colored, of Danville, was arrested by Policeman Jeffreys yesterday on the charge of stealing in Danville on Oct. 3 a grip owned by H. A. Stevens, a colored contractor of this city. Stevens pointed out the alleged thief to Officer Jeffreys on Ashe street near the place where Weaver was staying.

Stevens states that there were in the grip some clothes, tools and $70 in money. Weaver acknowledges that he got the grip, but says he didn't get the money. He says the grip, with contents of tools and clothes, is at a house in Danville where he stayed while there.

The Danville police authorities were notified and they will probably send for Weaver today.

Arrested For Trespass.

Lewis Fuller, colored, was arrested by Policeman Causey yesterday morning on the charge of forcible trespass. He will be given a hearing in Municipal Court tomorrow morning.

THE KLEEMEIER'S SHIPWRECKED

And Four Days Without Food—Caught In the Storm Between St. Augustine and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kleemeier, who were expected home from their wedding trip yesterday, will arrive today. A telegram received from the couple in New York by Mrs. Kleemeier's mother, Mrs. B. B. Bouldin, yesterday, said that they were shipwrecked between Jacksonville, Fla., and New York, and without food for four days.

Mr. and Mrs. Kleemeier went to Florida on their wedding journey and sailed from St. Augustine for New York just before the great storm of last week. They were in the storm and, as stated, shipwrecked, but the particulars as to how they reached New York have not been learned.

Be Good To Your Feet

If your feet are tender—if ordinary shoes hurt you so that it is impossible for you to wear a new pair regularly before "breaking them in"—ask to see

LA FRANCE FLEXIBLE

(Goodyear Welt Process)

This wonderfully comfortable shoe is so flexible and elastic that you can bend the toe up as far as you like. And when released, it resumes its original shape without a wrinkle. Put them on and wear them at once—you won't have to "break them in." Conforms to the shape of your foot and fits as smoothly and comfortably as a glove. And these qualities are in addition to, and not in place of, the style and beauty that characterize every La France model.

Thacker & Rockmann,

FOUR PER CENT. PAID ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS.—FOUR PER CENT.

THE DIFFERENCE

between a dollar saved and a dollar spent is just two dollars. Did it ever occur to you that way? It's worth thinking about.

Another difference is the feeling you have afterward. The dollar saved gives you a feeling of real pleasure—it may call for a little sacrifice for the time being, but afterward you feel better for having denied yourself and the dollar is still yours. That is the nice thing about having money in the bank—you have saved it—it is still yours—you can have it when you wish.

We make it a part of our business to urge you to have a bank account at this bank, for it not only helps our business but yours more so.

We introduced last year the Personal Christmas Card, an entirely new idea in Christmas greetings. Some of our customers were unable to have their orders for these cards filled on account of waiting too long to place the order. Our sample book of Personal Christmas Cards for this year is now ready and we would urge all who desire to make use of this method of remembering friends to place their orders early, so that the cards may be delivered in time to mail out before Christmas.

GREATEST MEDICINE ON EARTH

A prominent citizen of Evansville, Ind., writes:—"I was ill for five months with a pulmonary trouble, and had the best of doctors:—I had hemorrhages and was in a very bad way. Through the advice of a friend I tried Vinol, and I feel that it saved my life. It is all you recommend it to be. I believe it is the greatest medicine on earth. I have advised others to try Vinol, and they have had the same results." (Name furnished on request.)

We want every one in this vicinity who is troubled with chronic colds—coughs—or pulmonary troubles—to come to our store and get a bottle of Vinol.

If it does not go to the seat of trouble—heat the inflammation and stop the cough—we will cheerfully return every cent paid us for it. This shows our faith—and proves that you take no chances. Do we mean it? Come and see. Fariss-Klutzn Drug Co., Greensboro, N. C.

NEW CHEMICAL IS DEATH TO GERMS

Minnesota Professor's Discovery Promises to Make Science's Warfare a Simple Task.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 21.—Professor H. C. Caryl, of the University of Minnesota, for many years head of the department of medical chemistry and toxicology and chemist to the Minnesota State Board of Health, has discovered a chemical that will revolutionize the warfare upon germ life, arch enemy of the human system, and bring success in cases where the physician heretofore has been baffled.

Professor Caryl has had exhaustive tests made by leading bacteriologists, and their reports have more than borne out his assertions.

The new chemical, which he calls benetol, is eight times as strong as carbolic acid, and yet is not a poison. Never before have physicians been able to give doses of any disinfectant in sufficient strength to kill germs.

Professor Caryl, in speaking of the new chemical, said:—

"I am so confident in benetol that I am willing to submit myself to cholera infection to prove that it can be successfully treated with my discovery. It may be difficult for the lay mind to realize the great benefits of a powerful germicide which can be taken internally. It means that internal infection can be arrested just as effectually by its use as external infection has been in the past by the old agents."

"As a further illustration in another way, suppose a soldier, parched with thirst after a battle, came upon a pool of stagnant water, in which the deadly typhus germ was present by millions. He might dip his cup full of that germ poison and by adding one drop of this new chemical that water would become harmless and would instantly change from a germ poison to a beneficial medicated drink."

Capt. Bogardus Again Hits the Bull's Eye.

This world famous rifle shot who holds the championship record of 100 pigeons in 100 consecutive shots is living at Lincoln, Ill. Recently interviewed, he says:—"I suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and used several medicines, all of which gave me no relief until I started taking Foley Kidney Pills. Before I used Foley Kidney Pills I had severe backaches and pains in my kidneys with suppression and a cloudy voiding. On arising in the morning I would get dull headaches. Now I have taken three bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and feel 100 per cent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and again feel like my own self." Sold by Howard Gardner.

MR. NEWMAN FINED WHEN IMPATIENT

Man Who Offered $1,000 for a New "Cuss Word" Finds Himself in New Tangle.

New York, Oct. 22.—Walter G. Newman, who is said to have made $5,000,000 in mining several years ago, is so utterly lacking in patience that he is always getting into trouble.

His failing first came into public notice about a year ago, when his automobile broke down while making a tour of the Southern States. He became so angry at the delay that he exhausted his supply of expletives and turned to his chauffeur and offered him $1,000 in gold if he could supply a new "cuss word" that would fittingly and precisely describe Mr. Newman's feelings.

Mr. Newman next appeared before the public as defendant in a suit brought by Alexander Law, a curb broker, who wanted to recover $1,052 for services in connection with the Gold Hill Copper Company, which Mr. Newman had promoted. Mr. Newman became so impatient waiting for the case that he swore he could stand for the law's delay no longer and went out for an automobile ride. In his absence judgment was taken against him by default.

Failing to appear in supplementary proceedings instituted by the plaintiff he was adjudged in contempt, but the judge harkened to the plea of Mr. Newman's counsel that his client was well meaning but highly impatient.

On the day set for the adjourned examination Mr. Newman, who is a most punctual man, was there on the dot. It happens that the law requires that his name must be called three separate times within an interval of half an hour. Fuming at the delay, Mr. Newman contained himself until the lawyers were ready to proceed. Then he rushed out of the court room shouting as he went.

"Good heavens, I can't waste all this time. I can't stay another minute. Good day, gentlemen."

The lawyer for the plaintiff again set the slow machinery of justice in motion, and yesterday Judge O'Dwyer, of the City Court, held that Mr. Newman had impeded the course of justice, slow moving though it is, and fined him $250 and costs. The judge allowed him six days in which to settle. In the alternative Mr. Newman will be requested to take lodgings in Ludlow street for thirty days.

A Generous and Charitable Wish.
"I wish all might know of the benefit I received from your Foley's Kidney Remedy," says I. N. Regan, Farmer, Mo. His kidneys and bladder gave him so much pain, misery and annoyance, he could not work nor sleep. He says Foley's Kidney Remedy completely cured him. Sold by Howard Gardner.

Even the Church.
"We are thinking of putting an electric sign over the church."
"It might be a good idea."
"But there are factions. We can't decide whether to feature the minister or the soprano of the choir."—Pittsburg Post.

A MISSOURI FISH TALE.

Big "Cats" Caught With Bait as Big as Man's Hand.

Kansas City Star.
The Osage River appears to have been raising big catfish in secret places, for in spite of all the fishing that has been done in some of Missouri's oldest counties, the big fish are being pulled out this year in greater numbers than for several years.

These big "yellow cats" are caught close to the banks on lines baited with fish as large as a man's hand. The fishing parties set a dozen poles and watch them all night. The experts nearly always come back with a catch, for where fish grow so large even one sample is a "mess."

Reaching the Top
In any calling of life, demands a vigorous body and a keen brain. Without health there is no success. But Electric Bitters is the greatest Health Builder the world has ever known. It compels perfect action of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, purifies and enriches the blood, tones and invigorates the whole system and enables you to stand the wear and tear of your daily work. "After months of suffering from Kidney Trouble," writes W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Me., "three bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." 50c. at Fariss-Kintz Drug Co.

Never Enough.
"Can't you please a woman anyhow."
"What's the matter now?"
"I wiped the dishes for my wife last night and she kicked because I didn't hang up the towel afterward."—Detroit Free Press.

"It Beats All."
This is quoted from a letter of M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo. "I recently used Foley's Honey and Tar for the first time. To say I am pleased does not half express my feelings. It beats all the remedies I ever used. I contracted a bad cold and was threatened with pneumonia. The first dose gave great relief and one bottle completely cured me." Contains no opiates. OUR JUDGMENT is not alone responsible for having made

Washington Suits and Overcoats

our specialty.

It is a fact that a great percentage of young men who have heretofore worn made-to-order garments have found in Washington Garments more snap and elegance than they have ever been able to get from local tailors.

In building these garments, the manufacturer has taken into consideration the demand for dignified yet vigorous and distinctive garments and the result is obvious.

"They're made just a little better than seems necessary."

CROOK, PROBABLY SOME OTHERThe Man Captured In the Act of "Lifting" a Purse at the Union Station In Raleigh Last Week—Says He Was Coming To Greensboro.Raleigh, Oct. 22.—Raleigh police ascertained today that the pickpocket captured in the act of taking a purse from W. H. Pittman at Union station here and believed to be William Tolliver, the notorious crook, is not Tolliver. Authentic pictures of Tolliver reached here and there appears no resemblance between the two men. In explaining the presence of letters addressed to William Tolliver he carried in a grip the prisoner says a man giving his name as William Tolliver gave him the grip in Richmond Monday and asked him to leave it for him at Clegg Hotel, Greensboro, and that Tolliver went on to Philadelphia for the ball games, planning to come to Greensboro later. The prisoner insists that his name is N. H. Hamilton and says his wife and two children are with relatives on a farm seven miles out from Richmond. He has made no move to communicate with any relatives. He insists that he was taking the train here for Greensboro when he was seized by the Johnston county farmer and charged with picking a pocket. He shows his ticket to Greensboro, and says his plan was to go on to Asheville to spend a while seeking relief from lung trouble.Ringling Bros. big shows—circus and menagerie—captured Raleigh today and drew a crowd of people that gave Thursday of State Fair week a sharp race for biggest numbers. The long and magnificent parade and the two big performances under the biggest tent acres in the world were a fitting conclusion for the stirring events of State Fair week. It was a gratifying thing, too, for the fair management that no small number of the crowds here came on the railroads using state fair special rate tickets that include tickets to the fair grounds and that the fair management will realize on these in settlement with the railroads whether all the coupons were presented at the fair gates or not. Everybody seemed thoroughly pleased with the circus that the Ringlings have assembled admitting its rank among the very best that every spread tent and paraded in Raleigh. There were jolly crowds that packed the sidewalks for the parade and thronged the big tents for the two performances.

Miss Martin Entertains Her Music Class.

Miss Agnes Martin delightfully entertained her music class Saturday afternoon at her home on 140 North Mendenhall street from 3:30 to 5:30. The life of Mozart was read and discussed, then followed a musical contest. Miss Anna Schenck won the first prize, a little volume on the Life of Mozart, and the booby, a miniature mandolin containing salted almonds, was presented to Miss Ruth Kellenberger.
